My dear Sir.

I have received a draft for £50, as a grant from the Negus fund, to purchase religious books for the diocese; and previous to this I received a request from yr Society as to the administration of the above fund to send also books, which would be most useful for distribution: when I did on receipt of the draft, I wrote asking whether the £50 then sent was existing, or in addition to, the books, the list of which I had sent as a guide to the Society.

I can not used the money as our mode of spending it will be influenced by the answer I may receive to the above question.

May I request an answer to be sent, our clergy will meet in June, and I shall ask them to assist me to decide how the money shall be sent.

I am dear Sir

Dear Mr. Tucker.

I append a copy of a letter which I have received relating to the Calloway Memorial Fund.

As the work of building is already in progress, & the Warden of the College at Umtata is urgent that the money collected should be sent to him without delay, I have remitted to him £100, & have paid £16.9.4 to his order in England. I now ask your sanction, as a member of the Committee, for what I have done, & your authority to remit to him at once the remaining sum in hand, which amounts to £155.5.11, exclusive of bank interest. I am in hopes of still receiving a few more subscriptions, & therefore suggest that the Fund be kept open till the end of the year. On its being closed, I will furnish the Committee with a full financial statement.

I remain, Dear Mr. Tucker,

Yours truly,
William M. Cameron.

2. April 1861.

My dear Sir,

I have to send you the sad news of the death of Arthur Hoadley at S. Mark's on March 20th. He often spoke of your great kindness to him when he was ill in England on his return from Canada.

He spent a year in the Grahamstown Diocese, and seemed to be getting stronger, but the death of his wife was followed by a most severe illness, & he came to me to try to do a little work after a partial recovery last May. But he soon failed again, and gradually wasted away. Throughout his long & weary illness he was wonderfully brave and patient, and died most peacefully and happily; - to be laid, as he longed to be, in a Missionary's grave. A large number of natives and nearly every European of S. Mark's attended the funeral, 69 communicating at the funeral celebration.

his little boy Austin is left alone. I believe that Lord Victor Seymour, in whose parish he worked for a short time, is trying to get the boy into St. John's School at Leatherhead. He died quite poor, but I think that his relations will take care of his son.

Believe me, dear Sir,

Yours very faithfully,

Ed. Coates.

Will you accept a copy of my little book, sent herewith? I hope it may be of some service to S.P.G., and the Missionary Cause at large.

My dear Mr. Tucker,

You will have seen Chinbrin Thal-right to have written to me a Conclave also - I am very pleased quietly, & hope you will forgive me for not writing before. After I had been working at Richmond in the District of Grahamstown be pleased to for if for will,

I will for kindly communicate with Dr. Victor.

I have sometimes thought of

for about nine months my poor wife died suddenly.
for ten days & eight nights I was constantly watching & nursing her. A few days after this I was taken down with a severe illness, & was nigh unto death's door.
This brought a return of active politics & I had to resign. I had rallied, but never especially to take clerical work proper.
My old College friend Arch.
Deacon Coates of St. Mark's mission. I appear, for the time light secular work, but after a few months I again break down, & am now an confirmed invalid with little hope of recovery. I had hoped to get to England to see Dr. Thodis Cure, & am in correspondence with Dr. Theodore Williams about it. But I learn from Calcutta reports that it is of no use in advanced cases. If I had the strength I should like to go to England for a time.

But I must leave the Hospital at the end of this month. T. if I cannot go home. I hope I shall return to St. Marks but I dislike much being a burden to Archdeacon Coates, who, I know, finds his small income little enough for his own expenses.

Salisbury I cannot send a very flourishing account of myself. But my short day's work is done, & I trust I may have patience to wait God's good time, & that will all my shortcomings

I may by his mercy & God find rest & peace in Paradise.
Lord Victor Seymour, my Cousin Rector of Carnallon, Surrey, is trying to get my boy William admitted into St. John's School, Leatherhead — will you kindly allow him to use your name as recommending the case? I shall be grateful to you if you will,
& will you kindly communicate with Lord Victor.
I have sometimes thought of

advice the S. P. G. to give us a grant. What do you think about it? If you think it right to apply for one I shall be glad if you will do so. I have exhausted all my means of support, & if the Society could give me a grant to enable me to end my days (probably only a few months, at the outside) either being a burden to my friend Archdeacon Coates I should be very grateful. I leave the make entirely it for.

Yours very sincerely,

Arthur Headley.
